Services

Research Assistance

Professional librarians are available to assist you with your research. We also help members of the general public to find information and obtain documents. Please consult the contact information on page 4 of this brochure.

Borrowing Privileges for Library Resources

Each federal, state, or county agency may obtain two research cards for free, which allow the borrower to check out up to 10 items at a time. More information is available at http://library.manoa.hawaii.edu/about/policies/non-affil-chart.html

Copying and Scanning

The Library’s External Services Program can make copies or scans of non-circulating material for you for a fee. For more information, visit http://library.manoa.hawaii.edu/departments/access/esp/index.html

Photocopiars are available throughout the library. Microform readers/scanners can make copies or scans from microfilm, microfiche, or microcards.

A large-format scanner is available to scan maps and aerial photographs for a fee.

About the Government Documents Collection

The UHM Library is a participant in the Federal Depository Library Program. We have a wide range of publications dating from the 1800s to the present issued by FWS and its predecessors such as the Bureau of Fisheries and the Bureau of Biological Survey. Examples of what you'll find in our collection:

Birding in the United States: A demographic and economic analysis

The American lobster: a study of its habits and development

The brown tree snake: a harmful pest species

In addition to FWS publications, you'll also find:

Annual reports and statistical publications

Code of Federal Regulations and Federal Register, both current and historical, dating to 1939

U.S. public laws and Statutes at Large dating to 1789

Congressional hearings, reports, and documents, including the Congressional Record, from the 19th century to the present

Presidential executive orders, proclamations, and other material

Budgets and appropriations

Interior Department administrative decisions

Scientific and technical reports from other executive branch agencies

Aerial photographs of Hawai'i and the Pacific Islands

Topographic, geological, and historical maps of Hawai'i and the Pacific Islands

Many of our resources are available in electronic full text using our computers.
